Most travellers and holiday-makers take a camera with them and take pictures of everything that interests them – the sights of a city, old churches and castles, views of mountains, lakes, valleys, plains, waterfalls, forests, different kinds of trees, flowers and plants, animals and birds.

There are a lot of countries in the world. Each of them has culture, food, customs, history, art, technology. By travelling to a country, we learn a lot of information about it. This information might help us to change our lives.

In my opinion, we must first travel inside. I have some reasons for it. Firstly, travelling inside, we improve tourism industry. Secondly, it's a opportunity for creation new jobs. Finally, we understand about past and current culture in every place.

When we travel to other country, we can see how much different it is between our country and them. Also we can introduce our country to them.

In conclusion, I prefer first travel inside my country and know everything about my country and also see people in other country and use their experience in my life. Moreover, temp them to travel to my country and enjoy from my culture and people and every beautiful place we have.

TRAVELLING – A NEW WORLD RELIGION?

Mr. and Mrs. Brown: “For our family camping is the cheapest form of recreation and the best source of enjoyment. For our big family of six it is out of the question to spend our holiday in hotels as it is far beyond our means. By camping we solve one of our financial problems. But besides that there are other advantages: we use our own car to travel and for Mr. Brown it is an idea of a perfect holiday. Cooking on the open fire is not a chore but a real pleasure for Mrs. Brown. Pitching tents, blowing up the air beds, preparing sleeping bags, unpacking cooking utensils and provision in a record time is an enjoyable challenge for our boys and girls.”

Sheldrake, an expert on tourism: “I always hated holidays, even as a kid. It is such a waste of time, sitting on the beach, making sandpies, when you could be at home, doing some interesting hobby. Then when I got engaged, we were both students at the time, my fiancée insisted on dragging me off to Europe to see the sights: Paris, Venice, Florence, the usual things. Bored the pants off me, till one day, sitting on a lump of rock beside the Parthenon, watching the tourists milling about, clicking their cameras, talking to each other in different languages, it suddenly struck me: tourism is the new world religion. Catholics, Protestants, Hindus, Muslims, Buddhists, atheists – the only thing they have in common is they all believe in the importance of seeing the Parthenon, or the Sistine Chapel, or the Eiffel Tower.”

Sally, an English teacher: “For me the world is a classroom. When I travel, I can learn so much. Hike in a national park and you will become acquainted with so many plants, trees and wildlife. Somewhere during your holiday, you will most likely notice a monument, perhaps a building or a statue cut of stone or marble honouring a person or event. Go into museum and you will see important works in the areas of art, history or science. In some countries you can tour palaces and castles where rulers or other important people live or used to live.”

It is an yearly tradition for our family to gather at my grandma's house for Thanksgiving. I always look forward to this event. My grandma and other family members prepare a big meal. The main thing is of course the turkey. We also have rolls, dressing, cranberry sauce, and yams. Then, for dessert we have fresh pumpkin pie with whipped cream. Before we eat everyone always gathers around the table and someone says the blessing.

Thanksgiving is always a good time of fellowship and bonding for my family. We usually watch some of the parade on television or a football game. Sometimes after everyone is done eating, we play card games like Rook.

I wish we could do it more often.
