Time Is on Your Side

Ask any high school student what the biggest challenge is, and chances are it'll have something to do with time management. Here are some ways to help you build time management into your work habits:

1 _____

Look ahead and set a schedule for yourself so that you always have time to be productive. Planners are the best things for any student. If you stay up-to-date with your homework, clubs, organizations, sports and jobs, there's no way you'll miss out an activity or forget an assignment. It's a good idea to update your planner after every class or meeting so you'll be 100% sure of deadlines, projects and meetings that are approaching in the future.

For many students, checking social media favourites like Facebook and Twitter has become a reflexive habit. Just keep reminding yourself that you don't need to check these sites every time you use the computer for school or work. It may seem harmless to go through your networks quickly just to get that feeling of obligation out of the way, but it's easy to get sucked into a time warp this way. Remember Facebook isn't conducive to getting work done, as much as we all wish it were.

3 _____

You have to be really sure of what it is that you want to get done. If you have homework in several classes, various ongoing projects already assigned, and tests to study for, you're likely to stay more overwhelmed than focused. This is why it's important to know what thing you need to do right now. You can only really focus on one thing at a time, so decide on some realistic tasks before setting out to tackle any business.

4 _____

Make sure your schedule includes short periods to recharge and have some fun with friends. You might decide to gift yourself a tasty treat or to give yourself a break after making good progress. If you're a social media junkie, you could even allow yourself to explore Facebook guilt-free after getting some work done. You'll feel less overwhelmed if you have incentives to keep you going bit by bit.

5 _____

If you're having trouble keeping up, don't be afraid to discuss it with your parents or friends. If you feel yourself floundering in a sea of information, talk to your teachers. They will answer your questions and recommend resources available to you. Don't necessarily expect any special treatment, but if you show that you're making an effort, they might just be willing to help.

A Don't burn daylight

B Don't keep late hours

C Set achievable goals

D Limit your social networking

E Reward yourself to keep motivated

F Keep your living space organized

G Ask for assistance

H Write everything down

Task 2

Read the text below. For questions (6–10) choose the correct answer (A, B, C or D). Write your answers on the separate answer sheet.

Teen Jobs – 5 Unique Ways to Make Money for Teens

Are McDonald's and Burger King the only teen jobs around? Not by a long shot. If you want to average more than $10 dollars an hour, choose your own hours, and have some fun besides... then read on!
Here are 5 unique teen jobs to make money:

1 *Article Writing
The internet is definitely the business way of the future. One of the best (and cheapest) ways for website owners to drive more customers to their websites for free is to write and submit articles.
But business owners are busy people and may not have the time or desire to write articles. That's where you come in! You can offer to write articles for small website owners. Usually you can get paid $10-20 dollars per article.
Can you guess the best part about writing articles for cash? You can do it from anywhere. No more ugly uniforms or stinky shifts.

2 *Taking Online Surveys
You won't make millions filling out surveys but it is an easy way to make some quick cash. Companies will pay you to fill out brief surveys or try their products.
They want to pick your brain on what you like and what you don't like!
One of the best and fastest growing paid survey sites is Cash Crate. It doesn't cost a dime to sign up and you can start making money right away. But here's a warning: Set up a separate email account because you'll start getting an avalanche of spam.

3 *Cleaning Up After People's Pets
You've probably heard about pet sitting or walking dogs, right? Well, this is a new twist.
I own a condominium complex and I hire a local teen to pick up doggie do once a week. It takes less than an hour for $15. It may not be the most glamourous job, but a pooper scooper makes it easy to do, and you never run out of work!
This service is especially handy in colder climates. As the snow melts, there're lots of business opportunities!

4 *Washing, Waxing, or Car Servicing
I don't know how it happened... But my cat accidentally got locked in the van overnight. I can't tell you how horrible the smell is! I would pay big money for someone else to clean up the mess.
This is a great way for high school teens or college students to make money. You could even advertise with local businesses and shine up their cars in the parking lot while they work.

5 *Sell Hand-Made Items on Etsy

This is my favourite way for teens to make money. And I just recently heard about it!
So if you have a knack for making anything...from furniture to baked goods to dog collars – then you can sell them on web pages for hand-made items.
They have over a million visitors looking to buy. It's free to join but it costs 30 cents to list items and a 3.5% sales tax on sold items.
Works for me! These are just a few ways to make money at teen jobs.
