CELEBRITY PROFILE

Jamie Oliver

1 Jamie Oliver is one of Britain's favourite chefs – every week millions of people watch him on TV and use his recipes.

2 Jamie was born in Essex, England, in 1975. When he was only eight he started helping in his parents' restaurant. He went to catering college when he was sixteen and then worked at the famous River Café in London for three years. His first TV programme was called The Naked Chef and it was an instant success. Jamie quickly became famous and in 1999 he prepared lunch for the British Prime Minister.

3 Now Jamie has got his own restaurant in London called Fifteen. But it isn't a typical restaurant – every year Jamie takes fifteen young unemployed people and teaches them to become chefs. The programme about the restaurant, also called Fifteen, is on TV every week. He is going to open Fifteen restaurants in Australia and the USA in the future and at the moment Jamie is writing a new book of recipes. He's already very rich, of course – in 2003 he earned £3.8 million!

4 Jamie got married in 2000 and he lives in London with his wife, Jools, and their two daughters, Poppy Honey and Daisy Boo. He's so busy that he doesn't have much free time, but he loves riding around London on his scooter and he plays the drums in a rock band. When he's at home he likes making bread and cooking pasta – his favourite ingredients are olive oil and lemons from Sicily.

SUPER COMMUTERS

ITV5, 8 p.m. ★★★★★

Mick Benton's fascinating new documentary series looks at the enormous distances people travel to get to work. Mick got the idea for the programme when he worked for a TV company in Bangkok. He lived only four kilometres from his office but it took him over two hours to get to work every day. "The traffic in Bangkok is unbelievable," says Mick. "Often people sit in traffic jams for seven or eight hours a day. They even have their meals in their cars!"

In the first programme in the series, Mick interviews three 'super commuters' who work in London. Tony Rogers is an accountant for a multinational company, and travels from Liverpool and back every day. Andrea Price lives in Paris, but works as an editor for a London newspaper. And Ian Hicks is a fireman in Ealing, West London – he commutes all the way from Santander, in Spain!

So maybe your half-hour train journey to work every morning isn't so bad!

MICK Tony, you spend 6 hours a day commuting from Liverpool to London.
TONY That's right.
M And it costs you £8,000 a year. Why do you do it?
T Well, my wife works in a department store in Liverpool and the children are very happy at school there. My family don't want to move down to London and I don't either.
M So tell me about your journey.
T Well, I leave the house at quarter past 6 and drive to the station. Then I catch the 7 o'clock train. I'm at my desk at 9.15 and I'm back home again at 8.45. And I do this 5 times a week.
M Andrea, why do you work in London, but live in Paris?
ANDREA Well, I know it sounds crazy, but my husband and I really love living in Paris. It's a much nicer city than London and the food is better.
M So tell me about your journey.
A Well, I work from 3.30 p.m. to 2 a.m., 4 days a week. I leave home at 11.30, catch the 12 o'clock train to London – you know, the Eurostar – and get to the office at about 3.25.
M So that's nearly 4 hours' travelling.
A Yes, but I only go there and back once a week. I stay with a friend when I'm in London.

M Ian, it's nearly 1,000 km from Santander to London. Why do you live so far away from your job?
IAN Well, my wife's Spanish. We lived in London for a few years, but flats are really expensive, so 2 years ago we moved to Santander and bought a flat there instead. Now I live there and work in London 4 days a week.
M And how long does the journey take?
I 4 hours, door to door.
M And how much does it cost?
I I buy cheap flights in advance. A return ticket costs between £30 and £60.

WOMAN How did you meet your wife, Liam?
LIAM When we first met she was /wəz/ going out with my best friend, Ben. That was /wəz/ 2 years ago.
W Did you like her the first time you met her?
L Yes, of course. She was /wəz/ very beautiful and really funny.
W So what happened?
L Well, I went to Ben's birthday party and Jenny wasn't there. Apparently, they broke up in January and Ben was /wəz/ already going out with someone else.
W Did you call Jenny straight away?
L No, not straight away. I waited until the day after the party.
W And then?
L Well, I asked her out and she said yes. We went on our first date the next weekend. I took her to the cinema and then to my favourite restaurant.
W Was /wəz/ it a good first date?
L Er, no, not exactly. She was /wəz/ very ill after the meal. Food poisoning. She was /wəz/ ill for a week!
W Oh, no!
L Yes, it wasn't a very good start. Anyway, we started going out in March and I fell in love with her very quickly. Then, about 8 months later, we were /wə/ having a drink in a bar and she was /wəz/ laughing a lot. I just thought – I want to hear that laugh forever. So I asked her to marry me.

W And she said yes.
L Well, not immediately. She was /wəz/ very surprised and didn't know what to say. Then a few days later I was /wəz/ cooking dinner and she just said, "OK, let's get married." And so we got engaged that day.

W And when did you get married?
L 6 months after that.
W Were /wə/ there lots of people at the wedding?

L Yes, there were /wɜː/. About 200.
W And was /wəz/ Ben there?

That night Shāhrazad finished the /ðə/ story – and then immediately began another. This continued night after night. The /ðə/ King never heard the end of /əv/ a story until the /ðə/ next evening. He couldn't kill his wife because he always wanted to /tə/ know how each story ended.

They say we're young and we don't know
 Won't find out until we grow
 Well I don't know if all that's true
 'Cause you got me, and baby I got you

CHORUS

Babe, I got you babe
 I got you babe

They say our love won't pay the rent
 Before it's earned our money's always spent
 I guess that's so, we don't have a pot
 At least I'm sure of all the things we got

CHORUS

I've got flowers in the spring
 I've got you to wear my ring
 And when I'm sad, you're a clown
 And when I get scared, you're always around

So let them say your hair's too long
 I don't care, with you I can't go wrong

sometimes 20 shows a day. But after 5 years of trying, he wanted to give up magic. He put an advert in the newspaper offering to sell all his magic secrets for $20. Luckily for him, nobody answered the ad.

- I What was his greatest trick, do you think?
- O Well, the underwater escape, I suppose. He was put into a tank of water in handcuffs and chains, then Bess pulled a curtain around it. When she opened the curtain a few minutes later, Houdini was standing next to the tank. It was really amazing to watch!
- I So how did he do his tricks?
- O Well, he used to practise opening handcuffs for 10 hours a day. He also used to hide pieces of wire in his hair and between his toes. And he was very fit – he could stay underwater for 3 minutes or more.
- I How did he die?
- O Well, many people think he died onstage, but that isn't true. What really happened was that he had bad stomach problems while he was doing a show in 1926. He refused to go to hospital until he finished the show. He died a week later.
- I Well, that was Oliver Fuller, whose new documentary ...

7–8 ticks:
