

1.to mix	a)to mix ingredients together by gently moving a spoon or stirrer around in the glass or mixing container.
2.to squeeze	b) to put an ingredient into a drink or recipe, typically in measured quantities.
3.to stir	c)to remove solid pieces or ice from a mixed drink by pouring it through a strainer, leaving only the liquid in the glass.
4.to shake	d) to decorate or enhance a drink by adding an edible or decorative element, such as a slice of fruit, a sprig of herbs, or a colorful straw.
5.to strain	e)to combine two or more ingredients together thoroughly.
6.to fill	f) to transfer liquid from one container to another, typically from a bottle into a glass.
7.to add	g) to mix ingredients together vigorously by shaking them in a cocktail shaker or other container with ice.
8.to serve	h) to provide a prepared drink to a customer or guest.
9.to pour	i) to extract the juice or essence from a fruit, herb, or other ingredient by pressing it with a tool such as a citrus press.
10. to garnish	j) to add liquid to a glass or container until it is full.

1. After shaking the drink, _____ it into a chilled cocktail glass and discard the ice.
2. Can you _____ my glass with ice water, please?
3. Can you _____ some fresh lemon juice into my drink?
4. He will carefully _____ the champagne into the flute glasses, making sure not to spill any.
5. I'll _____ a margarita for you with tequila, lime juice, and triple sec.
6. Please _____ my martini with the cocktail spoon until it's well-chilled.
7. The bartender will _____ your drink to you as soon as it's ready.
8. To make a daiquiri, we need to _____ rum, lime juice, and simple syrup together in a shaker with ice.
9. We can _____ this drink with a twist of orange peel and a sprig of fresh rosemary to make it look more appealing.
10. You can _____ a splash of grenadine to this drink to give it a sweeter flavor.

On the rocks:	This phrase refers to the belief that drinking alcohol in the morning can cure a hangover from the previous night.
Straight up:	This is a toast used before taking a drink, meaning to raise your glass and drink the entire contents.
Last call:	This phrase is used when someone orders a drink served over ice cubes.
Hair of the dog:	This phrase means to be overwhelmed or behind in a busy work environment.
Raise the bar:	This is the announcement made by the bartender when it's almost time for the bar to close and it's the last opportunity for customers to order drinks.
Wet your whistle:	This phrase means to have a drink to quench your thirst or satisfy a craving.
In the weeds:	This phrase means to have a drink without any ice or mixer.
Bottoms up:	This phrase means to set a higher standard or expectation for something.

whistle	shake	squeeze	ice	bottoms	rocks	delicious	splash
----------------	--------------	----------------	------------	----------------	--------------	------------------	---------------

Bartender: Good evening, what can I get for you?

Customer: I'll have a margarita on the 1. _____, please.

Bartender: Great, one margarita coming up. Would you like me to 2. _____ in some fresh lime juice?

Customer: Yes, please. And can you also add a 3. _____ of orange liqueur?

Bartender: Of course, I'll add it to the mix. Should I shake or stir the drink?

Customer: Could you 4. _____ it for me, please? And can you strain it into a salt-rimmed glass?

Bartender: You got it. Here's your margarita, shaken and strained. Enjoy!

Customer: Thanks, it looks 5. _____. Hey, do you have any suggestions for drinks that are served straight up?

Bartender: Yes, we have a great selection of martinis that can be served straight up with a variety of garnishes. Or you can try a whiskey neat, which is simply a straight pour of whiskey without any 6. _____ or mixer.

Customer: Sounds good, I think I'll try a gin martini with a twist next. Oh, and by the way, what time is last call tonight?

Bartender: Last call is in about 20 minutes, so you have some time to enjoy another drink if you'd like.

Customer: Alright, I'll definitely wet my 7. _____ with another drink before then. Thanks for the great service!

Bartender: My pleasure. Don't forget to raise the bar with your next drink choice. And remember, 8. _____ up!

Customer: Cheers to that!

Unit 7: (Serving in a bar) WHAT CAN I GET YOU?

Listen to the conversation in a bar, and fill in each blank with the correct word.

- Paul: Let's have a (1) here before we go on to the club. Come on, here's a table.
- Gaby: Good idea, Paul. What're you going to have Michelle?
- Michelle: Hmm... I think I'll have a (2) A Margarita for me. What about you, Gaby?
- Gaby: I'll have a gin and (3)
- Waiter: Good evening. What can I (4) you?
- Paul: A Margarita, a gin and tonic, and a large (5) for me, please.
- Waiter: Would you like draught or bottled?
- Paul: I'll have a large, (6) Guinness, please. What about you, Kurt?
- Kurt: Could I have a (7) of San Miguel?
- Waiter: Certainly, sir. And would you like ice and (8) in the gin and tonic, madam?
- Gaby: Yes, please.
- Waiter: Here you are. Shall I charge this to your (9) , sir?
- Paul: No thanks, I'll pay (10)
- Waiter: OK, so that's.....