

Unit 2 Trades

Trade materials

Word			Definition	Translation material (n)			a substance, e.g. wood, glass, brick, metal concrete (n)			a material used for building that is made by mixing sand, small stones, cement and water metal (n)			a hard, usually shiny material, e.g. iron, steel glass (n)			a transparent solid material used for making windows wood (n)			the material that trees are made of; used to make things, e.g. stairs, doors brick (n)			a hard block of baked clay used for building walls and buildings stone (n)			a piece of rock of any shape paint (n)			a liquid that you put on a surface, using a brush to make the surface a particular colour bricklayer (n)			someone whose job is to build walls and buildings with bricks window (n)			an area of glass in the wall of a building that lets in light per (prep)			for each space (n)			the amount of an area that is available to be used calculation (n)			when you use numbers in order to find out an amount, price or value plus (n)			add on (in a sum of numbers) minus (n)			take away (in a sum of numbers) times (n)			multiply (in a sum of numbers) divided by (n)			to divide by another number in a sum of numbers equals (v)			the result of a sum of numbers brackets (n pl)			a pair of signs put around words or numbers to show extra information, e.g. (1 + 2)	