

Unit 5 On site

Directions

Word			Definition	Translation exit (n)			the door or space through which you can leave a building miss (v)			to not see, hear or notice something railway bridge (n)			a structure built over a road that allows trains to cross tunnel (n)			a passage that has been dug under the ground or erected above ground which allows cars, trains, etc. to go through on the left (adv)			on the same side of something as your left side main road (n)			a large and important road roundabout (n)			British English a raised circular area where three or more roads join together and which cars must drive around [= traffic circle American English ] fence (n)			a structure made of wood, metal, etc. that surrounds a piece of land ramp (n)			a slope that has been built to connect two places that are at different levels portable cabin (n)			a temporary structure that can be moved waste (n)			unwanted materials or substances that are left over after you have used something purchasing (n)			the department that buys things accounts (n)			the department that keeps an exact record of the money that a company has received and the money it has spent general manager (n)			someone whose job is to manage a company or other organisation

WC (n)			(= water closet ) a room with a flush toilet photocopying (n)			the department that makes photographic copies of materials, especially of something printed, written or drawn conference room (n)			a room in a building where a group of people discuss important things reception (n)			the desk or office where visitors arriving at a company go first lift (n)			British English a machine that you can ride in, that moves up and down between the floors in a building [= elevator American English ] storage (n)			when you keep or put something in a special place while it is not being used	